Parable reading: Look for the Zoom breakout room labeled "Parable Reading"

We will read the upcoming week's parable aloud as a group, taking turns sharing what we notice. A hardcopy of the text will be available to jot down notes. If you're interested in participating in readers theatre during the parables worship series, coming to the parable reading on Sunday is a great way to express interest but no pressure. Meets in the west parking lot.

A space for an interactive response to the morning hosted by Karl Shelly: In the main Zoom room at 11

People can respond to these questions:

* How does what you heard connect with your life, the life of our community, or the wider world?

Meets in the north parking lot
