assembly life and people

Adam Siemens-Rhodes (4th Bethany) turned 10 on March 12! He likes reading the Warriors book series about a clan of wild cats, and playing imaginary games outside. He and brother Ira recently created an imaginary game called "Generators." He's looking forward to celebrating his birthday at Sky Zone Trampoline Park with friends.

Fellowship Meal TODAY, after second hour! Bring a comfort food favorite, or create a new delicious dish. Please bring plates, cups and utensils for your family.

Leadership Group has completed the 2015 State of the Congregation report. It is attached to the electronic version of this week's AssemblyLine (look at the very top left-hand corner for the link). Several printed copies are also available on the literature table. The report offers a succinct overview of congregational highlights of 2015.

The sculpture that's currently a part of the worship space visual is looking for a home after the Lenten season. If you want to know more about the piece you can contact Maddie Gerig at mjane.gerig@gmail.com.

The Facilities Renovation Task Force and individuals have met more than ten times since September. We have worked with the architect, the city and an engineering firm to revise and redesign our space for Assembly and Faith to worship and nurture our children. The new design will have flexible space that can be used for community projects yet to be defined. The Task Force is now ready to bring a plan to the congregation for your evaluation and response. Come to the congregational meeting Mar 20 at 7pm when these plans will be presented.

Maundy Thursday, Mar 24, service will be held in the homes of small groups rather than at the meetinghouse. It will be a child-friendly service and includes a light meal. Groups may schedule this event for whatever day that week is most convenient. A signup sheet will be available the next two Sundays for folks not in a small group who would like to participate. Groups planning to participate please contact Dawn (dawnyh@assemblymennonite.org) for the service outline and instructions. Also please indicate if you have space to include others around your table.

Good Friday service, Mar 25 at 7:30pm will be a contemporary Station's of the Cross service held at the meetinghouse, and will focus on Jesus' presence in the suffering in Israel/Palestine and the Borderlands.

Easter sunrise service, Mar 27, 7:15am at Steve and Kate Shantz's farm (60728 CR 27, Goshen), led by Wilma Harder and Barb Swartley. If the service is canceled because of weather, a listserv message will be sent by 6:30am Sunday.

Easter worship, Mar 27. Bring festive finger foods to share for the Easter feast near the end of the service. K-12 children/youth will be invited to carry the food into the worship space (instructions will be given during the service). Plates, cups, and napkins will be provided, but not utensils (again, please bring finger foods to share). Easter lilies and other blooming plants are welcome and can be placed on top of the chair cabinets for the service (and then taken home with you). There will be no Sunday school

You are invited to a gathering to explore starting a Moral Mondays group in Elkhart County. Moral Mondays is a movement that originated in North Carolina under the leadership of Rev. William Barber to gather people of faith and others who believe in a moral universe to advocate for justice for the most vulnerable at the state level (see indianamoralmondays.org). The meeting is Apr 12, 7pm, at the Assembly meetinghouse. Contact Karl Shelly for more details.

(repeat) Gone missing! The computer projector normally stored in the sound cabinet in the worship space has been missing for several weeks. The projector is property of Faith Mennonite, and is used regularly by both Faith and Assembly. If you know of its whereabouts, please let anyone on staff know as soon as possible.

(repeat) The relief buckets are packed and ready to go! THANK-YOU for the generous contributions to this project. With $1,545 Johanna Sutter was able to get supplies for 70 buckets. Our prayers go with these buckets to bring joy and hope to the refugees.
