CHILDREN'S BIRTHDAYS

Emi Kaufman (5th, GIS) turned 11 on March 26th! Emi likes to write informational and persuasive essays (and can be very persuasive). At school she likes library, math and STEM. She enjoys dancing and singing in choir and spending time reading and watching TV. She likes to be creative with her friends and spend time with her animals.

Reuben Graber Roth (CCYC) turned 5 on April 1! Reuben loves chocolate-ice cream, pudding, cake and candy. He also likes juicy pears and spaghetti. He likes to go skiing and play soccer and to use a bow and arrow with his dad. He is learning how to do a back flip and is excellent at giving directions. Someday he would like to go to the Olympics!

SUNDAY APRIL 10

9:30am – All ages are welcome to join us in the Worship Space at 9:30. Children & youth (infants through high school) will be dismissed for 45 minutes of Sunday School in the middle of the worship service. You may also join our worship service on Zoom.

Today is Palm Sunday. The last Sunday in Lent, it also launches us into Holy Week. Traditionally each day during Holy Week has a different emphasis and tells a different part of the biblical story. We will be exiting the building briefly so please have a jacket or sweater for you and your child. Read on for more announcements about Holy Week services here in our congregation.

Welcome to Alison Casella Brookins, our guest preacher today. Alison is a 2017 AMBS graduate who lives in Chicago. She is the author of the play that plays (sorry) with the Doctrine of Discovery, which many of us have seen. She is also a free-range pastor ordained for ministry by Mennonite Church USA. She does her best to live into a theology of justice, joy, and humor, dreaming of those moments when the world cracks open and something remarkable peeks through. Alison reads lots of speculative fiction, runs medium distances very slowly, and is chair of the board for the nonprofit Center for Art, Humor and Soul.
